

SENIOR WILLS -- CLASS OF '73

Leslie Apetz- Heidelberg College, Ohio

I leave to Miss Schieck a shawl and rocking chair by the fire; Mrs. McLean my geometry notes and thanks for putting me through; Mr. Rudgers, my thanks for teaching us something besides the usual school stuff. May the girl's basketball team win at least one game next year. Same goes for the softball team. For third period coffee hour, I leave about $50.00 down the drain.

Jerry Arena- MCC

I leave Miss Kemler my book on "How to skip class without Getting Caught," and I leave Karen Spar a Jewish dinner for two at Caruso's Italian Restaurant.

Katie Bare- Macalester College

I leave a pair of croppers and a book on creative layouts to Sue O'B and a new girls soccer field, softball diamond, and lots of luck to next year's team-they'll need it!!!

Ruth Barthel- Colgate

Amy Bartsch- Work

I leave..... with great joy!!!!

Marcia Becker- Highland Hospital (School of Nursing)

To Pam and Merrilee I leave voice class and "lovely" voices. To M.B. I leave a smile- because he needs one and one paddle. To Belinda W, I leave the pool (good luck!). To Andi and Steve C. I leave Sports Service Club and Mrs. McLean. To Misses Bolger and Kemler I leave the cockroaches, to Coach Hunter the Swim-a-thon and to B.N. I leave memories of swim team while you sit in ugly California (you fink!)

Sharon Bilous- S.U.N.Y. at Cortland

to Mr. Shay a straight column of ducks, to "Bub" two paper cups with ice "togo" and a bottle of Lake Niagra, boogie jeans, 12C, and Diane.

Ruth Bitz- Brockport

To Debi I leave with the hopes that I may someday be her maid of honor and my best friendship forever. To Judy I leave all the good times at good 'ole J.M. and Cindy and Bernie. To Laura, all the guys over six feet tall and the best of luck with Smokey (or whoever's next in line) to Mr. Straub I leave my grease. To the rest of my favorite teachers I leave absolutely nothing except the fact that I'm leaving. And finally to the classes of 74,75,76,77 I leave my "Favorite Two Ton Truck" (and rots of ruck)

Nancy Blostein- Iowa University

To my friends I leave one safe full moon. To this school, nothing.

Stacey Bolger- Buffalo State (Individualized Degree Program)

I leave behind me at P.H.S. three years of stifled creativity. Also I leave a lot of boredom only occasionally interrupted by enthusiastic and nonconforming teachers and students. I hope I have left a little incentive for a lot of change in present mundane schooling methods.

Diane Bone- getting married July 21

To Mr. Stengel I leave my gratitude. I leave Leigh some swear words and a megaphone, 37 noses to Jackie, to Bill Carson- the undying question, "What's the answer?" and the word "rotate" for him to ponder on, to Squirrel and Angle- a hoover, (whatever that is) and to Vickey I leave a sex life so she'll have something true to talk about, and a pound of bagels.

Grace Calimlim- University of Rochester

To Sue O'B- 13 trays of dinner rolls minus the 10 pieces of Fareastern fried chicken plus a bushel of baked potatoes for the grand total of minus 10 layouts + a grand heartburn finale. How much in the hole is that, Sue? To my "mysterious kringle" alias Don Quixote- my locker and homeroom numbers for those 4 days of absolute joy, sispense and insanity. From Diane and me, a working vacuum cleaner, an X'mas tree that won't shed a needle and a calling card for our state-approved teamwork. Also, our sincere thanks and gratitude! To Mr. Shay, a basketful of "kumquats" and thanks for everything-- "hope you could work as closely with next year's staff" (no need for your stop watch) To Adrian from Diane and me, we leave you with next year's book--- don't worry, you'll survive through it (sane hopefully) despite the "little" work you did this year.

George Carafos- SUC at Oswego

To Chifute I leave one Bagel. To Bridgette and O'B, I leave one lousy shamrock. To Cheeks I leave one belt, and to Dick Morris I leave the pool.

Sheree Caruthers- College at Morrisville

For the sake of the class of '74, I Sheree Caruthers do hereby leave Penfield High with one hope that L.G. will be blessed with the ability to find her own guy instead of trying to snag everyone elses (like mine, Bob G.) Give up L. when you don't have it, it's not easy to obtain, but don't despair... I'm leaving you my ability.

Nancy Casper- Michigan State

Kevin Chaffee- M.C.C.

I bequeath one totaled chevi van to air-hole and a lot of good parties to the "junkies" who totaled it. I leave Mike Muller one trip to Mytle Beach without any clothes.

Steve Collins- Miami University (Ohio)

To Mr. French- Mr. Stewart's assignment sheet; to Mr. Perry- a democratic Majority; to Mr. Stewart- good taste in picking teams and a tie-dyed pantsuit; to Mr. Brown- Popell's Pocket Fisherman; to Mr. Stengel- A euchre rule book.

Susan Constantine- University of Iowa

I leave one tennis ball and a worn gym suit to the Phys. Ed Dept. an apple and an empty jelly jar for Mr. Shay; two used bass clarinet reeds for Ned Corman; a chocolate candy bar for Mrs. McLean; and a well-used lighting system for Drama Club, it's still in shockir condition.

Cindy Crowell- work and marriage

To Mrs. Todd, our quiet 6th period class; to Annette, 5th period lunch and all the walks we've taken in and out of school; to Judy, all the weirdness in the world plus all the weddings she's in; To Vicky, staying-out until 4a.m. on a saturday night; to Miss Belina all the business machines in 105; to Miss McGrath the hope that everyone next year will give their homework in on time so she doesn't have to ask them more than once; to Janis and Leslie, our little greeting; to Wendy, your quiet voice during 2nd period; to the people in my 8th period class, a couple more years in Penfield; to everyone, a pleasant life.

Sue Dake- Central City Business Institute, Syracuse, N.Y.

To Robin, a future Junior and Lori, a future freshman, I leave the walls and ceilings of the new building and the new gym. I hope that they would never fall on you for Dad's sake.

Sam Dattilo- M.C.C.

I leave the legend of the fastest 4 door Duce to be passed on to the Sophomore and Junior classes.

John DeBuyser- work

To Mr. Stengel I leave one empty parking space and ten bald tires; to all under-classmen, I leave the new school; to all my friends, the Best of luck; to all teachers, "How do you do it?" Good-bye Penfield High!!!

Carol DeWolf- Allegheny College

I leave Mr. Wilcox and next year's A.P. Biology class those "dumb" Biology papers.

Mark Deyle- Bucknell University

To my sister I leave Penfield High with the hopes she doesn't get caught. To Jim Salom I leave the key to happiness. To Paul Brantly and Tom Beach I leave the swamp and the Big Boo. To Sharon Finkle I leave a life-size poster of Mae West. To Mr. Strickland I leave "How to Run a Stage for Only Three Heartattacks Per Year," and an hour long tape saying, "The board will be fixed tomorrow." To next year's Senior Class Pres. I leave a large bottle of aspirin.

Liz Dineen- Russell Sage College

Diane Dobson- S.U.N.Y. at Albany

To Laura Cheney I leave Tuesdays and Thursdays to keep spending as you please. To Chris V.- Ma and Pa wish you fun skiing.

Beth Doty- University of Rochester

I leave nothing---- Good-bye.

Patti Dye- working and getting married

To Debbie, two more years to go. To Judy, one year more and of course, Bob. To Steve and Buck, lots of parties in the park.

Ginny Elwell- Hartwich College

To Adair, I leave the "bebe's" and a bright smile especially for use when walking into class late. To Karen J.- an all-occasion "worry-bird" knowing that you'll never need it. To Mr. Stewart's A.P. History "birds"- my best wishes for a happy "nest" and "keep on chirping!"

Vera Elyjiw- R.I.T.

I leave Mr. Wilcox 500 moldy glass creamers full of fruit flies waiting to be washed. To Mr. Taddeo I give one copy of The World's Worst Puns. The rest of the school is blessed with my sister Martha, and my kid brither- plus my warnings.

Sally Evenden- University of Rochester

I leave my laugh to haunt the halls of our trusty Alma Mater.

Janet Fassaro- M.C.C. : St. John Fisher

To Glenn Green and Karl Appell I leave my almost unused Chemistry book lab notebook and my few notes, and a box of cough drops, also, a pack of gum and a little laughter. To Dr. Short I leave laughing and talking (as usual). I also leave him all him all my labs. By the way, can NaOH hurt you? To Mr. Strickland I leave all the unpaid Drama Clubs accounts. I also leave an unruly mass (mess?). To the office secretaries I leave unplugged. To MS. burns and Ms. McGrath I leave my IBM and untranscribeable notes. To Reb Butler I leave all the plans that never worked and also a herd of screaming meemies. I leave the loud-mouthed sophomores their dreams. To Sandee Shupe I leave a phone call and heartache. And to everyone I leave. Thank God!

Christopher Finkle- Syracuse University (School of Public Communications)

To Mr. Shay: the track liner, one set of chrome bocce balls, Booden's watch, and a new canoe. The popcorn machine to any sucker who wants it (Gail?), The P.A. Syatem to Mr. Drum or Roy Riley. A Dictionary of Backward Words to Miss Higgs. A kinks Album and a free concert pas to Mr. Taddeo. Da Schwool Hat to the Schwool, and a one way ticket to Las Vegas to Lucky.

Muriel Fischer- Wagner College, Staten Island

Betty Fix-

I leave Laura Cheney with the trick that only we can do. I leave Jim Carlevatti with no one to laugh at next year. I leave Steve Sansone with, well what can I say but GROSS!!

Bob Flaherty- M.C.C.

To Sherry and Gail and anyone else, I leave my brother. To Garry Little his own Hockey Stick.

John Fleming- University of Iowa

I leave Mr. Sowinsky my brother for the next three years along with my mother. I leave Mr. Steitz a culture of penecillian. To Mr. Strickland I leave the Monday, Tues, Wed, Thurs, Fri, Sat, and Sun, dinners and some Irish stew. To Mr. Stewart I leave the Giants, Rangers, and Knicks.

Holly Ford- working full-time

To Angela I leave the $4.00 she never collected and to Vickie I leave 45¢ for an extra lunch. To next years Lav Gang Seniors I wish success and good fortune in anything you do.

Debbie Frank- Geneva College

I leave to Dawn all good things which come from heaven; to Mr. Shay, prayers; to Laurie, Spaghetti and love; to pat, a sisterly kiss; to Ruth, thanks for a great N.E.W. Day; to Sue, Au revoir; and to Mr. Irving, an encouraging word.

Linda Gailey- work

I leave Dana 25 cigarette burns in the cuff of her brown pants. Oh, Stalana can't blame ya! I leave Dan Fico to Mr. Shay. I leave Leigh a book of my best loved swear words, and finally I leave Penfield Senior High happily, very, very, very, happily. Whew!

Karen Gates-

I, Karen Gates, do hereby leave to Jinny Wagner, all the snowflakes that fall on our sacred and beloved "Carrols", but once they turn to slush, they belong to Loretta.

Jinny, take care of the locker and the smoke sticker. It's from me to you.

Renee Gilbert- SUNY at Morrisville

I leave Charlie a set of car keys to attach to his wrist; Mr. Sowinski, a pink, plaid jacket; Leanne a leather jacket; Janis a gummi bear and a note in the french dictionary.

Jeanne Gilman- Endicott Jr. College

To Linda Stowell I leave a quiet stand, have fun next year, if you can. To Miss Kemler and the girl's softball team, I leave a blue sweatshirt and a nose plug. Don't wash it, just bury it. To Mary B., Sue O'B., Sue W., Patty H. and Ellen F. an undefeated volleyball and basketball team and another year to drive Miss K insane. Good luck! To Adie K. I leave as "stretch No. 2" and my spints, and to watch out for next year's coach, and to Mr. Rodgers a kiss and a big Thanks.

Bety Ginkel- Work

I leave gladly a year early.

Michael Glor- Clakson College

I leave Mr. Stewart with some greenie stickums for his cannon. I leave the cafeteria five pounds of fertilizer to season their food with. I leave Mr. Clark, Robin Heise to deal with. I leave Richard Morris my rim bending dunk shots. I leave a "Drum" for the phys. ed. department to beat.

Midge Griffiths- Southampton College of Long Island Univ.

To Sandy an unopened bottle- (see Allison's); To Jennie C.- another "A"+ lab partner; to Dave C.- a polaroid with a brand new battery; To Randy H.- a botched up Mike for Hope marshall sheetes; To Mr. Sowinski- thanks a lot; to "nickel" it's been fun! Last of all, to "flip" at last I'm out of hair!

Jim Gubiotti- St. John Fisher College

I leave the lunch ladies 12 copies of Peg Bracken's I Hate To Cook Book. I leave Cindy solin a collection of dirty jokes, guaranteed to embarass the boy telling them. To Karen Spar, I leave my head permanently lodged within the grasp of Schnooky's teeth, and to anyone else concerned, I leave.

Liz Gundlach- Study in Belgium as a 13th year exchange student

I leave Mr. Dixon to all you fortunate underclassmen, to Mr. Reynolds I leave "sculpture" and to Christa Deyle, I leave orchestra and Strange conductors!

Paul Gunther- Travel and study in France

Blue roses and snails to A.P. French class, a signature to Laura and Odyssey to Pittsford.

Bob Gramm- Virginia Polytech

To Miss Cording and the rest of the orchestra the worst bass section in NY state; to Randy Hutto my Irondequoit tube; to Pat a key to the Muzzy; to Doug, a win over Mick; to B. the hope that the happy ho ho will never strike again; to Mark D. a spray can for another screen job; to Jim S. 209-B. and a forked Hamburg; to Doni, many more of the best.

Jan Gray- Oswego

I leave my blocks to Mr. Szum and my moles to Mr. Smout. To Mr. Sowinski- a can of flourescent pink paint for his "closet", and to Renny a band aid for her button.

Gary Gray-

Gary Gray leaves behind a bloodstained trampoline and a thankful group of hysterical spotters to anyone (Bill Riddle Maybe) who wants to continue his frequent suicide attempts fifth period... also a challenge to any junior or sophomore who thinks they can equal or surpass his record for daily alcohol consumption before fourth period every morning.

Cynthia Green- SUNY ay Binghampton

To my sister Jackie, I leave my luck at poker and a soggy gymsuit.

Margaret Hailbach- Plattsburg State College

Sheila Hanlon- Oswego

I leave Mrs. Griffin a copy of Love Story and Fairy Tales. I leave anyone a bad case of shot nerves, a stack of final deadlines and all 240 volumes of "Understanding Penfield".

Linda Hanggi- Army

Foremost I leave Mr. David Brown in the hopes that he won't forget me. I leave Mr. French a bottle of apple wine to cherish but not to drink. I leave Miss Sisca a few inches shorter than me (Thank God!!) and last I leave Penfield High minus friends and in the hope that it'll become a friendlier school in the future than it was in the three years that I attended it.

Ken Harris- University of Arizona

I bequeth all the fun and excitement of High School days to anyone that is dumb enough to believe that it really is fun and exciting, and a Last Hurrah to Mr. Perry and the political science club.

Judy Harstad- Minnesota State College, St. Cloud

To Donna Bolger our fantastic gym class.

Denise Hess- Nazareth

Jerry Holleran- Oklahoma City University

To Robert Reb Butler, a ton and a half of paper confetti for liberal distribution over his cranium; to Scott McNally, any and all leftover females that I never got around to; Sandy Shupe a copy of Walter Lord's book, A Night To Remember, to commemorate a certain weekend; Cindy Savini very wholesome memories; to Mr. Ketchum, Many Sleepless nights and memories of a clumsy but beautiful Turkish lab partner; to Mr. French, "I don't see anything!" M. Doonesbury; to Mrs. Griffin a knowing smile; and to Mr. Cole full rights and privileges to the closet in his room, and many, many thanks.

Sara Hoogesteger- Carleton College

I request that Penfield High blow up.

Jennifer Krause- partying at the NYSU at Oswego

I leave Lindsay with a permanent invitation to stay with me up at Oswego when she runs away, and I leave her and Julie the joint head of the Sisterhood... to Mr.s Doe and KerxhauI I leave my official "good guys award"... to Di I leave my sympathies and the hope that she finds at least one decent guy in Penfield next year...to Mr. Taddeo-T.M.C. To Mr. Rudman- sorry I never tried for the Harvest C.eep... to the Biology teachers I leave a wagging finger of reproach and the hope of more AB negatives in the future... To Mrs. Griffin my sincere thanks... I leave Julie taking a walk on the wild side. Also she and Lindsay have to take care of Paul F. and keep him into trouble... to D.D. thanks for the many times he said my legs were nice.... to T.R.C. I leave the boiler room and the hope he will use it wisely in the future... to Paul F. I leave a "Feverat !Oh,NO," and my sentiments that he is "really neet"... I leave Diane and Wendy boogying at the concerts and my apologies for copping out on them at Beck... to Jim F. (the older Marahootchie brother) good-luck in Buffalo, and keep your muffler out of the fire; to the vounger Marahoochie brother I can only say, " cut the Bru-ha-ha punk!"

SENIOR WILL

Brian Jablonski- St. John Fisher College

To Mr. Chinelli 192 pieces of used tape and 54 "F" graded drawings. To Bob Ambrose my five inch switch blade. To John Schumaker absolutely nothing. I leave Mr. Clark Craig Jablonski and to Scott Fitch I leave my brown shoes.

Debbie Jackson-

To Jacquie Keppler- "What, I'm not doin' nothing!". To Barb Distephano luck with whoever she's in love with this week. To Ron Kuhn a referee's whistle. To Jerry Flig a book on how to play cards and a bag of blocks. To Sandy Tulio an arrow.

Bill Jarvis-Supreme Gringo and Stooze Extraordinary- Yale

To the Griff a box of minus minuses, a piano under my desk and a one-way Passage to India from this Intruder in the Dust. To Mr. Cole a grand piano on an Oriental rug. To Stricks a well-earned bottle of booze. To Mr. Hunter a more-or-less waterproof (splash!) watch. To Miss Bolger a large reservoir of overwhelming sarcasm. To Reb Butler a Stairway to Heaven and the Attic Room. To Tads a big cigar instead of a pencil and Kinks for the Kinky. To Mr. Briggs a (more-or-less) tuned harpsichord, DiProvenzo 11 Mar, a sword and a rose (I'll take the cape thanks). To Dave Hokgson a woo-woo-woo for the last of the Stooges. To Ann Decker Ta-da-da-DAH.

Karen Jensen- Wittenberg University

To Miss Kemler I leave my moldy socks and one well-disciplined class in the corrective gym. To Mr. Clark no more questions to be asked or decisions to make. To my brother, Eric, I leave two more fun and exciting years at PHS. Enjoy Yourself!

Chris Jones- Monroe Community College

I hereby leave to any lucky girl one slightly used gymsuit for the cheap price of 25¢. I leave to the V.I. gang the fine times shared in 5th period study hall. I leave to all underclassmen Mr. Rudman who makes the day seem a little brighter and easier to get through. And last but not least I leave to Scott all the beautiful girls in Penfield High School. The only thing I wish to take with me are the memories of the last 3 years spent in this school.

Scott Jugovic-

To Marianne Eight cases of oil. To Pam the weight machine. To Loretta a new swimsuit. To Linda an eight foot saddle. To Cindy a ticket machine. To the football team 100 kegs of beer.

Sue Kinsman- Ithaca College

Karen and I leave Laurie a free pass for 1 full year of gym classes sponsored by Miss Bolger (non-redeemable). To Heidi and Chris I leave some snags. To Kim I leave many more exciting art classes with Mr. O'B. and alot of rocks. To Miss McGrath I leave a collection of Grand Funk and Black Sabbath for next year's 6th period class. To Mr. Doe I leave Cybil Shepard.

Debbie Kirk- Mohawk Valley Community College

I leave to Miss Bellina a bar stool at "Laughs" (and a lot of them) and a bar of soap. To Mr. Shay a kiss. To Mr French a front desk. To Bill Carson I leave a big ego. To Maureen Palmer and Sandy Liser I leave another try next year?? To Randy Hutto I leave hopes his eyes for Spanish improve. To Jacquie I leave the 4-year olds and Pat her phone number. I leave Pedro a hot eye for a Red Vega. To Donna I leave a lot of love and good luck.

Anne Koehlinger- Wheaton College Illinois

For Mr. Smout I leave my chemistry lab techniques.

SENIOR WILL

Cindy Kovacs- Highland Hospital School of Nursing

I leave the computer to next years unsuspecting Math 12A-12C students with Mr. Szum.

Mark Langenhan- Allegheny College

To the teachers of Penfield High School I gladly leave my sister, Laurie, Goodluck!

Kathy LaDelfa- Monroe Community College and work

I leave Pam Marshall paranoid and inferior. I leave Bob fond memories of his girlfriend's reformed "jock" sister and to Cristy and Cindy I leave the promise never to babysit for them again. I leave the "freaks and jocks" to fight among themselves but mostly I leave Penfield High School--Finally!

Shelley Levinson- University of Rochester

I leave cynicism to Dee Fuller. To Mr. Reynolds The Rachmaninoff Concerto in C# minor. Smut to Mr. Smout from a very unusual Chemistry student. The last of the Levinsons to Mr. Stewart (Kindergarten Stuff). Two years of Soccer Ed to Mr. Vercolen. Math and a lot of Friday nights to Mrs. Duval. One smelly gymsuit and a cockroach to Miss Kemler. One million "come on now, be nice's" (Bon) and "pas de bavarder's" to Mrs. Wilk (plus many happy memories.) Finally, I leave to all my friends (inmates) who are going to be stuck here, I say "Good luck". I'm glad to be getting out of here. (kisses and hugs to the Real Mr. Clark).

Elaine Lippa- Nazareth College

Lois Love- Alfred Tech.

To Linda S. her own private seamstress and a lifetime supply of safety pins. To Patty a crate of cabbages. To Mr. Smout an electric buzzer system to awaken his first period class. To Chris V. A munchkin costume. To C. the second volume of "Dating How To's"

Anita Low- University of Georgia- Athens Ga.

Bruce Lyon- Michigan State University

To Mrs. Griffin 1 large barrel of Kentucky Fried Chicken and the collected works of Theodore Roethke. To Mr. Wilcox Maxwell's Demon and 4.3×10^{88} Yeasts. To Mr. Szum the 88th Fibonacci Number. To Mr. Brown 4 oxims and the electro static constant. To Mr. Stewart a Nixon campaign button and Jack Anderson (Keep Him)!! To Bill Jarvis 144 tapioci. To Tim Quinn the crab nebula and a quark. To Janet Fassaro the Mafia. To John Fleming a kilt.

Bonnie MacWhinney- France- Sept-Dec Seattle: Dec.-June 1974- Brown

I am leaving this school: behind. To Andy Karron 4th period study halls, an Ann Landers handbook and my thanks. To Ruth Karron SAT scores. To Karen Jeff my French accent and sex appeal! To Anne Tweet Errare humanum est.

Greg Malley- Monroe Community College

I leave Mr. Dixon an Instant Replay Camera to have documented Proof of all those who come in late to Homeroom and Gary a new Spanish partner to cheat off of.

Steve Manetta- St. John Fisher

For Sam, to take along with him to college, a pair of Levi permanent press slacks and a booklet on personal hygiene. To my brother and the rest of my friends I leave my collection of BEATLE albums (with the pictures of Paul McCartney cut out). And to Karen I leave my love.

Janet Mangino- Work full-time

I leave to Miss Belina all of her inspiring law books. I leave to Mr. Irving ("Mikey") a night out on the town. I leave to Miss

-8-
SENIOR WILL

Burns all my unmailable letters. I leave to Amanda Johnson 1 drink at "Laughs".

Wendy Marks- Monroe Community College

To Luann Lopatka I leave her half of our gym locker and also her place in restricted study hall have fun, Luann.

Dave McPhse- Army

To Terri Mahan I leave Homeroom and a good morning. To Mr. Dolega a pack of Marlboro. To all Jr.'d I leave the Pizza Hut. To the school I leave the T.v. show Peyton Place.

Sindy Monaching- Bauder Fashion College Florida

To Nora and Jane I leave all the potato chips and milk they can consume for breakfast. To John, Bill and Kim I leave all of BUS. they can take and still survive long enough to graduate.

Linda Moore-

I leave all my cigarette butts in the lav. I leave good memories of Biology and Mr. French. Thank God I leave the cafeteria lunches. To the school. To the person that stole my jacket- I hope you put it to good use. I leave Amanda my left over typing paper.

Tim Moore-

To Mr. Dolega I leave that handbag made from what the rabbi gave his traveling salesman friend and a little bit of HARD LUCK. I ask that number 3 be retired but if it isn't give it to someone who deserves it. I also leave John Biltucci a case of Strohman's noodles and a loaf of Italian bread.

Patience Mosher- Eastern States Blacksmith School and work

I leave Sue M. Joe Malito from Geneva and the cottage, the 1000 Islands '72 and all the memories to Nugent. Rob W. all my embroidery thread. Dana Gruttadaro the name "Angela" from Linda Moore. I leave Donna Misuraca and Gloria Gardwell two badmitten rackets. To Sue H. the memories of a Datson 240z. Mary Wildreg- all the beautiful and loving memories of the Breeders show 1972 and Bob H and BobA. that made it wonderful.

Jim Mower- SUNY at Geneseo

To Mr. Brown a conversion kit for turning people over 65 into atomic bombs. To Mr. Corman a turnip with rhythm. To Mr. Hardy a Mad dwarf to take home movies of and show backwards. To Mr. Smout an interesting but not shocking lunch to go to.

John Mulvehill- MCC major in business administration

I leave to Mess Sisca one pair of Elevator shoes. I leave to Mr. Ketcham a whole smash of babes. I leave to Mr. Wilcox a free haircut. And to Mr. Drum five free golf lessons.

Cathy Murphy- SUNY at Morrisville

I leave to the future Sr. class cabinet all the fun responsibilities of trying to get the senior class activities together!! To Christa Deyle the use of my locker for another exciting year at PHS! To Miss Bolger the following: unlocked towels, t.p. for the lav, five hundred cakes of soap tinnis courts especially for the girls, four hundred elastic bands for all girls who forget them, and a copy of "How to make gym classes interesting" with notes from Mr. Shay.

Karen Nabb- Monroe Community College

To Tommy a year of peace without Steve around. To Laurie a pair of unrippable shorts.

Annette Nania- Highland Hospital School of Nursing

I gladly leave all the permutations and combinations in the world to Mrs. Duval.

Andrea Negus- Alfred University- Nursing School

To Lori Kerr I leave my absence because I know she needs a rest. To Mr. Smout Jerry P. and I leave Homeroom #213 in tact- surprising

Marty Nelson- Elmira College

Athena Pappas- To Mr. Doleza I leave an empty bottle of metaxa. To my little sister the song of her choice. To Penfield teachers next years seniors with the best of luck.

Jerry Parr- Penn State

I Jerry Parr leave the lunchladies on their own.

David Pensgen- work

To Mr. Mongeon I leave some of the math problems I did, to the incoming kids of his two classes for them to figure it out.

David Pieramico- S.U.N.Y. at Geneseo (3-year program)

To Mr. Steitz I leave my disillusionment of high school sports along with that of many others. My three brothers to the poor teachers who will have them next year. My disgust to all the teachers who think fun in learning is great as long as it isn't done in school.

Diane Phillips- Macalester College,

To Miss Schieck from Grace and me- 73 pastrami subs (with half the rolls always left-over) 168 pages of "classics"--- where's your attic?, and Sue O'B (sorry about that.) To Mr. Shay I leave our never taken flee to Fairport, our many trips to the darkroom (to see what develops) and my thanks for everything. To Sue I leave you 74 wool hats, 168 pairs of mittens, 613 sweatshirts, and a ready supply of sneakers in hopes that your next jogging buddy won't have to wait two hours for you to get ready; a copy of "How to Manage An Organized Business Section in 3 Easy Steps Without Falling Asleep," by Laura Schieck, hoping you'll catch on; and finally, a huge bowl of boiling water and chicken soup. Have fun in the darkroom!!!

Stacey Pollens- M.C.C.

To Steve Sansone I leave one free Carvel ice-cream cone, waiting for you on Clark Rd. or Huntington Meadows (your choice). To Leigh Falldine, good-luck as the newlav "leader" (just keep Nancy running). To Mr. Irving don't forget our date at Roseland this summer! Nugent (Hotlips) what can I say to you other than I leave you my golden slippers (and please say hi! to Crisco for me next at Concord.) and the old saying, "Howie gonna sue her with all the money in the drawer!" Don't forget the island memories of 1972. Good-luck and hurry-up out of this hole! Last but not least, Stengle, you're finally getting rid of us but----we'll be back.

Timothy Quinn- Williams College

To Mr. Stover 8k. of imperfect software, one amphetamine from Ed Strassenburgh, $25.00 worth of PDP-8 manuals. To Mr. Frank one filling cabinet. To Mark Deyle one calculus tutor. To Mr. Szum two duplicates of a computer key and an HP2114A manual. To Mr. Taddeo one Groucho Marx impersonation kit. To Mr. Langerak one Richard Taddeo impersonation kit. To whom it may apply, what could have been, but wasn't.

Lori Raines-

I leave Mr. Wilcox a cure for senioritis and to all juniors the antidote. Dee Fuller and I leave our halter tops to the administration and any one else who is interested.

Douglas Remington- Ohio Wesleyan University

To whom it may concern if you're expecting something here forget it. I'm keeping everything for myself. But to JMF and WFJ every wish for future success.

Randy Renzi- Tufts University

I leave Mr. Stewart with the hope of his becoming more intelligent by the next hockey, basketball, and baseball seasons. I leave Mr. Wilcox with sophomore classes that don't act so sophomore. I leave Mr. Brown a fly swatter to replace his fire extinguisher.

Jonh Rock- College at Canton New York

To Buck one more year. To the little junkies a pair of tweezers and a pack of empty matches. To the 5th period gym class leaves Prestone alone.

Leanne Sawyer Endicott Mass.

I am leaving Miss Kemler a soaked score book and a wet field. To Miss Bolger I leave my stolen lock and a new badmitton net. To Ren I leave a years supply of multi-colored hair ties and a sports car cap. To Janis I leave a parking ticket, Annette a sterling sliver Leon dancing slipper. Sue gets a camfire and gourmet cookbook. DD gets a life time supply of cigarettes(Winston), DW recieves a porch light bill and a follower. The nurse gets a insurance policy and tounge depressers.

Terry Schurr Alfred Tech.

I leave Penfield High School Orchestra, Mike (Sock) Zolenski. To Lindsey my broken bow and to Stuart Busch my out of tuned "G" string. To Alan Grosser I leave 10 empty ciggarette packs. To Kim, Jay, and Bill I leave C.U.S. to do what they want with it. To Rick I leave nothing.

Vicky Shaw U of Hartford

I leave my sincere love to Baby Pie. To Athena I leave her own answers to her own problems. To Micheal-----a senior. To the breakfast crowd Monica and 18 stacked cups of coffee. To the girls at lunch gossip. To Carson and Angle all of my past homework assignments that they missed plus a body.

Linda Sherbinski nursing at MCC and work
Good luck next year.

Bob Shellman LeMoyne College

Karen Smeltzer Alfred Tech. Retailing

I leave Pam Marshall with an inferiority complex in Spanish calss. Miss Sisca with a wish of luck to have a quiet Spanish calss. I leave Madame Wilk Unaccounted for absences. I leave my baby Garry Tomai with the faith that he will soon find some happiness.

Mark Smith work full-time

To Ed Rodwell I leave my Bible. To Johanne Lodico my bottle of mateus. To Paul Richardson, the complete works and words of wisdom of Ray.

Ellen Smurthwaite Nazareth College of Rochester

All false starts and timing for Mr. B. to N.M. one pair of chocolate cupcakes and a carton of milk to D.B. To Miss B. and Miss K. all of next years sophomores and freshmen (good Luck) and finally to B.V. I leave one sad Avon customer and sunny Californis study halls.

Debi Snyder Nazareth College

To Miss Kemler: I leave my fumagated ankle socks and sneakers.
To Judy: I leave my broken bones from badmitton.
To Miss Bellina: I leave 4 beroid study hall and her "zoo".
To Sharon Finkle: I leave my vast intelligence in Spanish.
To Ruth: I leave my "weird" sense of Humor and my best friendship always
To Mr. Stengle: All-~~my~~ our mututal friends on Albany.

Lynne Schaffer Boston U.

I leave my old gym locker ot anyone who can spare $3.00 for a new lock

Laurie Somers Ithaca College

I leave Mr. Ketchum one stop watch and an empty seat for next year.

Judy Somerville MCC

To Leslie one fumegated gym siut and a holly pair of sneakers. To Debi my broken badmitten racket and many bruises to come. To Jim Mr. Irving (and his delightful social studies calss). To Miss Bellina all my undone projects and one phone bill for $500. Oh yes, and Jim Triou, too! To Ruth many more enjoyable hours with J.M., and luck with Brian. To Chris a gin lemon and seven.

Dave Stillman MCC

I hearby bequeath 253 scribbles, 10 ripped pages, and 501 footnotes to Bob Williams, who so constructivly kept me awake durin Physics class.

Dave Storey Potsdam State

I leave to my brother, mustang Sally, with hopes that she will still be running next fall. I leave him all the beautiful chicks he can handle. I leave Danny O'Dell his famous saying "Hey man, what's happening" for he uses it so excessivly, and I think it should rightfully be his. And to scatter-brained Robin Heiss, the lableS.F.B. because she deserves it more than Dan O'Dell. And to anyone who wants it, the V.P. of the N.A.T.A.

Pat Stobe work

To Ginni White I leave my fat, little friend. To Penfield High I leave all the little Freshmen, have fun!

Sylvia Sweeney R.I.T. Retailing

I leave Mr. French a genuine cootie bug. I leave John Dunlap the "Bug". I bleave Jim Diven in the dark. I leave Mr. Williamson the discipline and peace and quiet he deserves. I leave my sister to Penfield High.

Debbi Switzer working

To Amanda I leave memories of laughs and espically of our friend. To Miss Bellina I leave a Jenny Grem cream at Laughs.

Jim Talbott St. John Fisher

After much consideration I have decided to bestow the presidency of the N.A.T.A. upon ~~Steve Sammons. If S. Then, S. Vanok and T. Storey~~ have any complaints take them out on the next president. Also I leave one night reserved this summer for Linda Little to pick me up and let me teach her how to parallel park. Last but not least, I leave my new book "How to Skip 200 classes or More at Penfield High School Without Trouble," to the future Penfield High schoolers.

Cathy Tracy University of Vermont

Barry Traub

Leaves: 1 set of Harley Wings to the next Harley Hacker, Mr. Shay, a bunch of thank you"s, Mark Schriener and Dave Shefitic a years supply of A.M.A. magazines.

Sandy Tullio work for a year then go to school

To Debbie Andrews I leave a steady boyfriend, hoping that she'll take one. To Jacquie a whole flock of eagles. To the other Debbie on the class I leave a beautiful black eye to match the other one. To Mr. Doe I'll leave a beautiful Chevy or Ford to take to "Mopar Palace" and back. To all the wonder "Bikus" I leave everyone of them fine fellows, a Full Dresser" to tear apart and destroy! And finally to Penfiel High I leave my younger brother who'll be a Sophomore.

Chris Utz SUNY at Potsdam

To Coach Cohen, I leave behind the looks of a 13 year old and a 45 year old body. I don't want them any more. To Mr. Wilcox I leave a sophomoric-question answering card, both sides saying "Negative" I leave Coach Hunter a new doubles team to lose to. To Coach Steitz, I leave many more Sectional champions, a bunch of "hweh- "knuckleheads" to play "idiot ball" and all the memories of great seasons as his manager.

Lynne Vaisey work and travel

I leave to Sarah Vanderschmidt a '73 Monte Carlo with foamy bucket seats and all the extras! I leave to Pat Vanderschmidt Bernard K. and a lot of meicy micey meatballs! I leave to the two "Saks" Sarah V. (good riddance). I leave to Amanda Johnson, Verna and Laughs! Also PLHHHHH! To Mike ASSHUH!

Patty Vanderschmidt MCC and Radio Broadcasting

I leave my sisters one helluva time at Penfield and Miss Jointgets 3 more Vanderschmidts. To Mr. Stengle, 200 skips and my undying gratitude. To Andy Karron, a recording of "My Name is Henry Kissinger" and to Amy L. one slightly used Bernie Kimble and 1,000 WCMF file cards. Sarah gets the sacs and Sandy gets the drugs and Mr. Shay gets my "fave-rave- teacher" award. I leave singing in the law and remember: SMW DMD!!!!

Mary Sue Vidro Eisenhower College

To Sandy And Jenny I leave Latin because thay love it dearly; to Mr. Irving, the Social Studies Study Center; and finally I leave the school to who ever wnts it.

Anne Voelckers Miami University

I leave my fantastic fall parties to anyone dumb enough to throw one.

Beth Wallin Springfield College Community Leadership and Education

I bequest my energy, psych and craziness to: Andy Karron (to give the Penfield School Board more and not let the MAGIS program die) Dave Crookshank (to follow Doug Woodward's and my footsteps in playing a major role in the Hike for Hope). Anyone who loves great people and will work at the Center and for Teen League.

Ann Weiler Ashland College Ohio

Chris Whitney Union College

To Mr. Wilcox: 3 "affirmatives" to use during the year at appropriate occaisions. To Mr. Brown: A class that says attention more than 10% of most peroids. To Mr. Hunter: A dictionary of sounds to pronounce peeples names.

Allison Wiegel Baldwin-Wallace College Ohio

To Sandy:-----of insanity (see midge*s). To Danny and Wendy: The stage, its safety hazards and various tremites. To Mr. Briggs: 10 toneful tenors. To Don Schoessler: A long playing record of "Bill And Janet. To Sharon: A box labled "Do not open till Christmas" To everyone luck and happiness To Penfield high: I leave-----

BobWilliams Lafayette College

I leave the drum sections my super delux water bottle. I leave the Rats the swamps and Paul Brantley without a ride to practice. I leave 5 more of Roberts records to whom it may concern.

Cheri Williams Narareth

I leave to all future AP History classas one cannon, one shrunken head one Hofstadter and a few missing birds. To Mr. Taddeo some verbiage and a Kinks album. To MissKorlan Laurie and I leave still being late to gym.

Roger Wink Ithaca College

I leave to Mr. Doe, some luck with the slide projectors; to Mr. Delgierno a copy of "How to Win Friends and Influence People"; to Miss McGrath, FJFJFJFJ; to Rock for colleges, 10 combs for when he gets a hair out of place; and to Tom, Rick, Heidi, and Lucky I leave Bill Haley and the Comets.

Norsen Zurell Secretary at Gleason Works

To Tom Pethic announce, to Sheryl Riethel, Shorthand II class, to Leigh Pallidine, T.H. city so Eight BlueJay (you can have him) The GN--Can, The Drop and the tire; have fun Leigh! To Mark Sperberg a gold plated jock strap and Jimmy's shiny shorts. To Randy Riethel a basketball, to Mark Savre a sign saying space-Head.